

PROF. TRENT AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Distinguished Teacher and Author Speaks on "Southern Writers."

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIAL WORLD

Richmond's Society Busy About Many Things—Wedded and to Wed.

The Lover in April.

Thou hast come back to me!
Thou who didst die a year ago.
And slept so many days beneath the snow.
Thou hast come back to me.
Now that the buds break on the hawthorn-tree.

And the old gladness of the earth revives.
Thou hast come back to me
In the dear hyacinth and white anemone.

The spring's great resurrection is thine own.

This fragrance of young blossoms is thy breath.

This silence is thy spiritual tread—
Thou art no longer dead.

Who is it, dear, that sits at the table in the bondage of strong death?

Nay, from the darkness, on the light winds blown.

Thou hast come back to me
In the dear hyacinth and white anemone.

—Charles Hanson Towne, in Cosmopolitan.

At the Woman's Club.

On Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Miss

Mrs. Freedy will give a paper before the club, on "Beautiful Italy."

On Wednesday afternoon, also at 5 o'clock, Dr. William Peterfield Trent, of Columbia University, New York, will be tendered an informal reception by the club, at which time he will talk to the ladies about "Southern Writers."

The Eleventh Annual Report.

The year just closed is the eleventh in the history of the club, the president's report shows much success in every department. Among the new branches of work taken up is the class in physical culture, under the direction of Mrs. Thurston, and a class for the study of the history of the United States.

Among the social attractions has been the monthly whist tournaments, and the principal social event of the year was the reception, held October 5th, in celebration of the tenth anniversary of the club.

"Traveling Libraries" were sent out in the early summer, with the result that in October three well selected libraries of fifty volumes each were in the field. These libraries were sent through Mr. John P. Kennedy, the State Librarian.

The treasurer's report shows the largest membership in the history of the club, numbering 22, and a large and very creditable balance in bank. The officers and board of managers for the current year are as follows:

President, Miss Jane M. Rutherford; First Vice-President, Mrs. J. Arthur Lefroy; Second Vice-President, Mrs. L. L. Lewis; Recording Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Clara Guillemette; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Charles M. Ferrell; and Mrs. M. D. Hoge, Miss Alice N. Parker, Mrs. W. D. Evans, Mrs. Leland Rankin, Mrs. J. Addison Cooke, Miss M. P. Harris, Mrs. L. R. Dashiell, Mrs. B. B. Munford, Mrs. W. G. Stannard, Mrs. Jackson Guy.

A House Party.

One of the most unique entertainments of the season will be given soon after Easter by the St. Anne's Guild of Monumental Church. There will be booths arranged to represent the six working days of the week; in each one articles will be for sale appropriate to the day represented.

Monday will be washing day, Mrs. Berkeley Williams, chairman; Tuesday, ironing day, Miss Sallie Bowers, chairman; Wednesday, darning day, Miss Sallie Brown, chairman; Thursday, reception day, Miss Julia Lee, chairman; Friday, cleaning day, Miss Petitioner, chairman; Saturday, baking day, Mrs. Snyder, chairman. In addition to these, there will be a candy booth, with Mrs. Gemen in charge, and a country store, in which will be sold everything from a paper of pins to a cooking stove. This last will be under the direction of Miss Stubbs.

At night there will be a military drill by the following young ladies: Captain, Miss Frankie Teller, Sergeant, Miss Louise Hickerson, Corporal, Misses Lucy Gude, Louise Hall, Jessie Hutchins, Ruth Hutchinson, Marion Johnson, Bert Myers, Joe Myers, Edith Pettit, Virgil Pettit; Privates, Misses Allen, Ethel Boudard, Genevieve Burroughs, Ruth Cowles, Frances Crane, Ethel Davis, Bertha Delaney, Cornelia Ellington, Elizabeth Gaines, Myra Gills, Etta Godey, Nannie Hall, Edna Hickerson, Nettie Johnson, Florence Leach, Elizabeth McGraw, Althea Moore, Helen Morehouse, Luella Preston, Mattie Preston, Annie Richardson, May

A reception will be held immediately after the ceremony at No. 47 West Grace Street.

Woman's Exchange Sale.

The Richmond Exchange for Women's Work, at Third and Franklin Streets, is having a special sale of a large consignment of the choicest Virginia home-made pickles and brandy peaches. The quality is particularly fine and prices very low. It will be to the advantage of housekeepers to call and examine these goods.

The Exchange is not a money-making institution, but is sustained by the subscribers as a philanthropy to aid women in marketing their handwork and thus assist them in maintaining themselves.

Booth—Tatum.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Randolph Tatum have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Lela Randolph, to Mr.

Richard Critchfield Booth, to take place on Thursday evening, the twenty-seventh of April, at eight-thirty o'clock, at St. Paul's Church.

Miss Binford's Class.

The Misses Binford's singing class will have its closing exercises at Belvidere Hall, on April 25th, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The chief features of the evening will be a Japanese dance and the musical, to be danced by the scholars. Tickets can be had at No. 312 East Franklin Street.

An entertainment will be given each evening, with dancing until 11 o'clock. There will be no raffish, no games of chance and no soiling on the floor.

Ruth and Arlene Chapters of the Eastern Star have each been invited by the auxiliary to have a table at the International Festival, the proceeds of their tables to go into the treasury of each chapter.

Greenbaum—Kronenberg.

A wedding of much interest to Richmond will take place in Carlisle, Pa., Wednesday, April 12th, when Miss Minnie Kronenberg becomes the bride of Mr. Ike Greenbaum.

Miss Kronenberg is a sister of Mrs. Frank Liebermuth, of this city, and has a host of friends here, where she has often visited.

Mr. Greenbaum is a son of Mrs. R. Greenbaum, of this city, and has been connected with Magnus Hessberg for a number of years.

After their bridal tour, Mr. and Mrs. Greenbaum will make Richmond their home.

Miss Minor's Piano Class.

Members of Miss Zelle Minor's piano class met at her studio yesterday afternoon, as is their custom, monthly. After a delivery of quarterly reports, the pupils engaged in a contest in Time-Analyses.

Misses Janie Simpson, Frankie Crane, Corinne Dickinson, Louise Yarrington, Phoebe Cullingworth and Linda Beveridge gave perfect answers, winning 100 per cent; Annie Kunkler, Mary Hawks and Lucille Massey, 99 per cent.

The roll of honor for the second quarter was as follows: The five highest averages: Janie Simpson, 99.34; Frankie Crane, 98; Corinne Dickinson, 97; Beulah Anthony, 96.7; Kate Markey, 96.7.

These five young ladies, with Louise Yarrington, Phoebe Cullingworth, Elizabeth Beveridge, Annie Kunkler, Mary Hawks, Mary Johnson, Lucille Massey and Marion Monnell, also appear for attaining 100 per cent, on any branch of study or having a number of perfect lessons.

The musical programme, rendered in most pleasing style, was as follows: Spinning Song (Hebr.), Miss Missy Hawks; Melody in G (Lohr), Miss Corinne Dickinson; Roundelay, Miss Elizabeth Beveridge; Pretty Butterfly (Pink), Miss Annie Kunkler; March op. 55, Ungelmann; Miss Lucille Massey; Casing the Butterfly (Kern), Miss Kate Markey; Nocturne (op. 9, No. 1, Chopin), Miss Janie Simpson; Sunlight and Flowers (Wagner), Miss Beulah Anthony; Transcendental and Romance (Schumann), Miss Louise Yarrington; Spring Song (Mendelssohn), Miss Phoebe Cullingworth; Fabled (Raff), Miss Frankie Crane; March and Chorus from Tannhauser (Wagner), Misses Linda Beveridge and Janie Simpson, a closing number that was given with fine spirit.

A Northside Comedy.

The Young Men's Society will present a farce comedy entitled "What's Next," in the Northside Hall on Friday, April 14th, at 8:30 P. M.

The young ladies and gentlemen taking part in this play, have been working hard for four months, and no efforts have been spared to make it a glorious success. You will never regret seeing and hearing these witty jokers and fun-makers, and at the same time aid these young people in their charitable work. Take seats leaving Seventh and Broad Streets for Northside at 8 P. M.

Meddis—Pace.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baker Pace have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Ethel, to Mr. Victor Newcome Meddis, of Louisville, Ky. The ceremony will be performed at high noon on Tuesday, April 25th, at the home of the bride's parents, No. 100 West Franklin Street.

Engagement Announced.

Miss Josephine Mann has announced the engagement of her niece, Miss Anna Francesca McIntyre, to Mr. Charles L. McCarthy. The marriage will take place in St. Peter's Church on Wednesday afternoon, April 26th, at 6 o'clock.

The bride-elect is the daughter of the late John J. McIntyre, and is an unusually attractive girl. Mr. McCarthy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. McCarthy, of No. 1611-12 West Grace Street.

and holds a responsible position at Murphy's Hotel.

The Right Rev. Bishop Van de Vyver will officiate, and Mr. J. J. McIntyre, of Columbus, O., brother of the bride, will give her away.

Social at Home.

The Young People's Home Mission and Parsonage Society of Park Place Church have issued dainty party cards for Monday evening, April 10th, from 8:30 to 11 o'clock. A rare musical and literary treat, as well as the delights of a social gathering, are in store for those coming.

Ladies' Auxiliary A. O. H.

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary A. O. H., are requested to attend a special and important meeting to be held on Monday evening, April 10th.

Miranda—Mason.

Miss Nellie Virginia Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mason, of Norfolk, and Mr. Thomas Newton Miranda, of Jacksonville, Fla., will be married on Tuesday evening, April 24th, at 8:30 o'clock, at the Freeman Street Church of Christ, Norfolk. Mrs. Guy Milton Mason, of Philadelphia, sister-in-law of the bride-elect, will be matron of honor, and Miss Spide Belle South, of Frankfort, Ky., will act as maid of honor. The groom will be attended by Mr. John Alsop, Jr., of Jacksonville, Fla., as best man.

The bridesmaids will be Miss Edna Tolley, of Chicago; Miss Alice Blake, of Boston; Miss Ellen Folland, of Richmond. The ushers will be Mr. Guy Milton Mason, of Philadelphia, brother of the bride; Mr. Charles McDermott, of Springfield, Mass., cousin of the groom; Mr. Philip R. Carlton, of Richmond; Mr. John H. Dr. R. H. Walker and Mr. Oliver Egerton, of Norfolk.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Frederick D. Power, of Washington, D. C., formerly chaplain of the United States Senate, and an old friend of the family. It will be held by the Rev. John T. Handley, pastor of the church, in Norfolk. A brilliant reception will follow the ceremony at the "Sunny-side," the home of the bride's parents, in York Street. A large number of out-of-town guests will be present.

Miranda holds a prominent government position in Jacksonville, where he stands high in the business and social world. This position he will shortly resign in order to locate in Norfolk.

Miss Mason is well known in musical and literary circles, being a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, at Boston. Her many friends in the State will be glad to know that after her marriage she will still live in Norfolk.

Mrs. Langzett's Lecture.

A representative and enthusiastic audience it was that assembled on Friday evening to hear the lecture of Mrs. Langzett, of New York city, whose theme was "The Unfolding of the Religious Nature in Children."

The personal charm and social grace of this distinguished woman made those present congratulate themselves upon hearing the best exposition of kindergarten ideals that has ever been given in Richmond. The speaker made allusions to numerous mothers, who had appealed to her for help in teaching the children to pray. She advocated a picture of Murillo's "Guiding Angel" for every nursery, and then went on to say that as faith pleases God, so belief is necessary to develop religious life, and the mother who does not herself believe, cannot hope for this growth in her child. The modern ideas, which she cited as tending to clarify our methods of religious instruction, are evolution and the lengthening of the period of infancy. Under evolution, as Mrs. Langzett said, the goal toward which nature tended from the beginning, so the perfecting of humanity is to be the glorious consummation of nature's long and tedious work.

It became a central theme in the child's life when he begins to question about the phenomena in nature, which has unseen power. "Then, and not till then, should you begin to talk about God. Before every visible thing is a reality, an unseen power, the unseen side of life is its greatest side. We find in history that it is the invisible thing which we call right that conquers in the end. A religion without reverence, a religion without mystery would lack inspiration. A religion without evolution would lack an understanding of the law of growth, and real religion does begin in ever progressive action toward God.

Your baby, said she, must learn to step before he can learn to run. Mother, father, never forgets the interdependence of all the separate stages of life. Rear your child in the universal law of harmony and adopt as your motto the words: "The earthly destiny of man is to make his own life a whole, and to understand the wholeness of all life."

Unique Entertainment.

A unique entertainment will be given at Corcoran Hall to-morrow evening for money to play. "The District School Blueberry Corners," will be presented by Church Hill talent. The Church Hill Mandolin Club has also cheerfully consented to take part in the programme.

The cast in the "District School" is composed as follows: School Committee—Urbah Perkins, Mr. William Craig, Jacob Alinker, Mr. Charles Walcott, John Smith, Mr. William Hill. Applicants—Miss Dashiway, Miss Eva Alexander; Miss Delinda Sharp, Miss Blanche Taylor; Miss Sally Simple, Miss Maggie Gilechrist; Hezekiah Pendergrass, Captain Thomas Cunningham. The Millinery Section A-bloom With Easter Hats

THE showing of Millinery in Opening Week was comprehensive, but not exhaustive of the season's possibilities. Come to-morrow and you will see an array of Newer Creations, that seem to say, we've just come from Paris and hurried to meet you here before Easter; but what woman is going to wait for Easter when the sun calls her now and Paris Easter Hats are making their bow.

From our own workrooms hats travel in daily procession to the display cases, being direct copies and adaptations of the imported models, which latter often embody original features that appeal directly to the Richmond woman; these have the added attraction of advantage in price.

Beautiful Easter Suits and Wraps Faultlessly Fashioned.

HANCES are that all three of the Suits here illustrated will be sold before noon to-morrow; their buyers will make splendid investments, for this trio are considerably underpriced, done merely to encourage early Easter buying and incidentally to lend emphasis to this advertisement.

Why not be one of the fortunate ones? If your Suit—the Suit at your price is not among the three here illustrated, visit our apparel floor Monday (to-morrow), and be your price $10.00 or $75.00, you may count on finding the Suit you want at either price or any price between. In any event, the value will bear close relation to ones here specified.

$25.00 Beautiful Suit of two-toned mohair, style like cut; its chief beauty lies in the material, the weave is brilliant, lustrous, yet soft and clinging; the collarless blouse shows vest front of novelty braid and is tucked front and back; the skirt is laid in box plaits, forming panels.

$35.00 A Redingote Suit, of finest quality chiffon taffeta, in black, brown and red-green, taffeta lined; as illustrated, a suit distinguished by its originality, stylish tailoring and the refined taste expressed in trimming.

$22.50 Handsome Suit, of taffeta, in cinnamon, style like cut, shirring is the motif of elaboration and is employed on front and back of waist, forming an effectively designed yoke; the skirt is profusely shirred at hips and flounce.

The Silk Wrap Belongs to Summer and with the advent of the first summery weather they spring at once into favor. Among the recent arrivals to this section are some fetching garments, in the loose effects, box and sun-plaited models; also the semi-fitting models—the capes are made the medium of much elaboration—prices range from $7.98 to $35.00 for the Taffeta Coats.

$12.50 to $16.50 for the full length Taffeta Dust Coats.
Black Silk Redingotes, in plain and shirred effects, some new and exclusive models, at from $20.00 to $35.00.

Refined Juvenile Styles in Misses' Suits and Dresses.

JOINING the extensive displays of Easter Fashions for Women you'll find an equally interesting display of vernal styles for misses and girls as fashionably complete as is the display of models for their mothers.

No other Richmond store so thoroughly enters into the task of dressing girls, big and little; no other store's management is so mindful of mother's pride in her child's appearance, and of a child's sensitiveness in the matter of dress—as special values to to-morrow's selling we quote a few particularly attractive numbers.

Sailor Blouse Suit

—of wool crash, green linen collar, edged with fancy silk braid, detachable shield with embroidered emblem, full sleeve shirred at top and confined at cuffs by verticle tucks; the cuffs trimmed to harmonize with edging of collar; plaited skirt, for ages 10 to 16. $7.50

Jaunty Box Coat Suit

—of fancy mixture, fly front, plaited back, strapped with belt, the collarless is lined with white cloth adorned with soutache in contrasting color and trimmed at neck with novelty braid that harmonizes beautifully with the material; the skirt is pleated; for misses 14 to 18. $7.98

Stylish Little Suits

—of mohair, in blue and brown—collarless blouse jackets, lined with cloth, braid trimmed, in contrasting color, very becoming. $10.00

Very Handsome Suits

—are these knee-length Coat Suits, strictly man tailored and nicely lined in gray satin, notched collar and turn-back cuffs, stylish plaited skirts; these come in the black and white and blue and white Shepherd's plaids, for ages 14 to 18. $13.95

son are the guests of the Misses Meade, Paxton Street, Danville.

Miss Sadie Williams is expected to-morrow to be the guest of Miss Blanche Mastin.

Miss Blanche Goodwin is visiting Miss Esther Goodwin in Gordonsville.

Mr. A. A. Gray, of Palmyra, is in the city for a few days.

Miss Lizzie Loehr is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Oscar L. Kent, at Kent's Store, Va.

Miss Kate Dunlap, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. Thomas, at Amelia Courthouse, has returned, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas.

The Norfolk Public Ledger says: Great interest has been manifested in Mr. John H. Powell, since it has become known that he will give a recital on Thursday evening, April 13th, at the Masonic Temple.
